JEWISH DIETARY LAWS – KASHRUT POLICY

Our Kashrut policy enriches our celebration of Jewish culture.

What Is Kashrut (kosher)?

Kashrut (kah-SHROOT) is the Hebrew word that refers to the Jewish dietary laws. It is a variation of the word kosher, which means fit, proper, or in accordance with the religious laws. Jewish dietary laws prescribe both diet and food preparation requirements. Kosher does not stand for an ethnic way of cooking or for certain tastes in food. Many Jews observe these dietary laws and many don't, but all Jews should be able to enter our Center and take pride in our ancient heritage. We thank all our members for the honor of sharing our culture with you.

JCC's Kashrut Policy

- No pork (ham, pepperoni, etc.) or shellfish (clams, shrimp, crab, lobster, etc.) is permitted at the JCC. Renters, members and staff are required to honor these exclusions. All food served by the JCC (utilizing the kitchens or not) will separate the serving of dairy and meat (i.e., meat and dairy will not be served together). This includes vending machines, fundraisers, lunches for child care, etc. We would be honored should renters, members and staff also choose to join us in the practice of separating meat and dairy.
- During Passover, the food served by the JCC will observe Passover guidelines, which prohibit the eating as chametz. Chametz includes leavened bread, and anything made with wheat, barley, oats, spelt, or rye. Vending machines will be unavailable during this time. Renters, members and staff will be asked to honor these guidelines.
- All food served from the Kosher Kitchen will be supervised by a mashgiach (an individual trained in the observance of the laws of Kashrut) and will follow kashrut guidelines posted in the kitchen.
- All Jewish community functions will be kosher or dairy as determined by the mashgiach. Donated foods for any JCC event need not be kosher, per a mashgiach, but cannot contain pork or shellfish.

The interpretation of kashrut can be very detailed and complicated, even for those of us who observe it! Please feel free to contact members of our Cultural Department with any questions you might have about our policy.

HOLIDAY SCHEDULE

The JCC closes for a variety of holidays throughout the year. Members are informed in advance of specific closing dates by postings on the front entrance doors and message centers, and program guides.

Jewish Holidays Observed

The JCC observes the following Jewish holidays from "sundown to sundown," closing at 6:30 PM the evening preceding the first day ("erev") and re-opening at 6:00 PM on the day of observance, except as noted.

- ✧ Rosh Hashanah - Closed first and second day (re-open at 6PM second day). Celebrates the Jewish New Year and marks the Day of Judgment (the day Jews believe God judges the world).
- ✧ Yom Kippur - Closed all day. "Day of Atonement" is the holiest day of the year for Jews and is a day of cleansing the year's sins.

On the following Jewish holidays the JCC is open normal business hours. The Pool, Fitness Center and ECE/SACC Departments are open; however, in observance of the holiday the Business Office is closed and no Fitness, Wellness, or Aquatics classes or Babysitting services are offered from "sundown to sundown" as explained above.

- ✧ Sukkot - The first day of celebration of the fall harvest and a reminder of the fragile huts (sukkahs) the Jews made as Moses led them in their escape from Egypt through the desert.
- ✧ Shemini Atzeret - The day the Jews left their sukkahs and returned to their homes. The holiday also marks the end of the annual cycle of weekly Torah reading.
- ✧ Simchat Torah – This holiday marks completion and renewal of the annual cycle of weekly readings of the Torah. A festive service is held.
- ✧ Pesach (Passover) -1st and 7th days. Recalls the Jews' exodus from Egypt over 3,300 years ago and the deliverance from over two centuries of Egyptian bondage.
- ✧ Shavuot - The day Moses and Jews received the Ten Commandments from God at Mt. Sinai. Also, an agricultural festival celebrating first fruits of the season.

More information about Jewish holidays is available by contacting the JCC.

Other Holidays Observed

In recognition of the diversity of our members and staff, JCC hours are adjusted on the following holidays:

SAFETY

It is one of the JCC's goals to provide a safe environment for all our members and staff. We need your support in responding when our systems are activated. We have implemented many systems, including age requirements in certain areas of the building, a pass card system for our early childhood wing, membership cards, a fire alarm system, and a voice alarm system. Here is an overview of the systems and steps to take.

Fire Alarm Emergency Procedure

Everyone must consider all fire alarms an emergency and non-response is a threat to your personal safety. When a fire alarm sounds, we need you to respond as follows:

- All children from Child Care, SACC, the Babysitting Room and Youth Lounge, and the School for the Early Years (preschool) will be immediately evacuated from the building.
- Pool participants will exit the water, prepare for evacuation, and evacuate the building.
- All other classes and activities will be stopped and members must evacuate the building using the closest fire exit.
- A JCC staff person will notify you when you may re-enter the building.

Emergency Horn System – Voice Alarm

In addition to our fire alarm system, the JCC has installed a voice alarm to notify our members and staff of present and imminent danger. Staff, from a variety of locations throughout the building, can activate this alarm.

When activated, a voice alarm is sounded. The alarm continuously states, "There is an emergency situation, please follow the plan for your location." When this alarm sounds, staff will employ and direct a "Run, Hide, Fight" protocol.

In the instance that you are in an area of the building not directly under staff supervision, immediately choose the best way to protect your life. Very quickly, make your best determination of what is occurring and which of the "Run, Hide, Fight" options below will provide the greatest degree of security for you.

RUN: Evacuate If Possible through the nearest building exit door.

HIDE: Hide silently in as secure a place as possible. A secure area is defined as any area behind a closed and locked door within the JCC, including the Pool, Fitness Center, the Babysitting Room, Administrative Office, etc. Once you are in a secure area, please remain in the room, keep the door closed, sit on the floor and get as far from the exterior windows as possible.

FIGHT: Take action to disrupt or incapacitate the intruder.

When the situation/condition passes, the alarm will be silenced and a staff member will inform you to either return to your normal activity or to follow additional instructions.

First Aid and Medical Emergency Procedures

The JCC has staff trained to respond to first aid and medical emergencies. If you are injured and require first aid, please report to the Front Desk, Pool or Fitness Center for assistance.

In case of a medical emergency:

- Immediately call 911 and contact the staff person on duty in your program area or call the Front Desk by using one of the wall phones and dialing extension 148 or 165.
- Clear the area around the victim.
- If trained, begin appropriate first aid.
- Remain with the victim until relieved by Emergency Medical Service (EMS) personnel.

Alcohol and Tobacco

Alcohol is not permitted anywhere in the building or JCC grounds (except during special or private functions). The York JCC is a smoke-free campus. No smoking is allowed in the building, in the parking lot, in cars in the parking lot, on the sidewalks or on any other campus location. Persons under the influence of alcohol or drugs may not use the facilities.

Weapons

Any items, such as guns and knives, which could cause personal injury, are prohibited.

HISTORY OF THE YORK JCC

The York Jewish Community Center was founded in 1910, a period when the Jewish people were not typically welcomed in public organizations. The JCC became the center of all Jewish activity, letting people meet and gather together socially. It served as the focal point and common meeting ground of all Jews: Orthodox, Conservative and Reform.

Involvement of the York Jewish Community Center in the non-Jewish community increased tremendously over the years as the JCC welcomed everyone. It allowed all people, regardless of background, to participate in swimming, Boy Scouts, recreation, physical education, etc.

In the mid-80s, the JCC purchased 9 acres of land along Hollywood Drive, abutting Temple Beth Israel, and officially opened its doors at 2000 Hollywood Drive on October 30, 1989.

Since opening at Hollywood Drive, the JCC continues to respond to the varied needs of our members, the Jewish community, and other communities we serve.

In 1992, we began to expand our outreach of sharing Jewish culture with the community. Today, we continue to educate schools about Jewish holidays and beliefs, the Holocaust, and diversity acceptance.

We opened the first nursery school in York County in 1952, which is still operating today as our School for the Early Years. In 1993, we responded to community needs by opening a child care center that filled rapidly.

In 1994, in response to the explosive growth of hate crime in our community, a diverse group of volunteers, professionals, and educators convened to form the Prejudice Reduction Task Force, now known as the Diversity Advisory Council. Its mission is to work towards the elimination of prejudice in York County through diversity education of children and their families.

Internationally-recognized artist, Don Briddell, was commissioned to create a memorial to those who perished in the Holocaust. In May of 1997, the completed 20' x 9' resin wall sculpture, "The Six Million," was permanently installed in the lobby of the JCC.

In 1996, the JCC received a generous bequest from the Lavetan Family that was used to further expand the services offered by the JCC.

In 1997, the JCC's child care and preschool received accreditation from the National Association for the Education of Young Children and maintains accreditation today. This honor is bestowed on less than 10% of all child care facilities nationwide.

In 2010, the JCC celebrated its 100th Anniversary.

In 2015, the JCC completed its most recent addition and renovation. A 6,200-square-foot expansion to the wellness center included a new weightlifting area, a state-of-the-art cycling studio and a group fitness room. An 11,000-square-foot expansion to the ECE wing included four new classrooms, and a large motor-skills room.

Today, the JCC is a welcoming place that celebrates the richness of life in an environment of Jewish values and culture, filled with people of diverse cultures and ages, complete with programs that stimulate our minds, bodies, and souls.
